

La Dynamique des Inégalités et leur perception The Dynamics of Inequalities and their Perception

Continuation Workshop

1rst of July 2014 Tuesday
Room A, Vieille Charité Marseille

This workshop is the second landmark of the research project Dyniper. Many persons managed to present at the occasion of the first and launching workshop in January. The aim of this second workshop is first to provide a slot for those who could not present in January and second to record the achievements that were reached on the project during these last six months.

The method will be to present papers written by members of the team, not necessarily finished and to initiate discussions. The average presentation will be 45 minutes. The name of the speaker is given on the program.
